PRODUCT DETAILS

The Corsica Chandelier elegantly combines form and function. Four slender bronze rods craft a sloped canopy, from which 12 cylindrical alabaster shades gracefully descend. These shades, set within a bronze ring, cast a serene and inviting glow, making it a distinguished addition to any interior. As part of the Ben Soleimani collection, it reflects our dedication to detail and design. To complete your space, explore our curated furniture collections, each piece thoughtfully designed to complement and enhance. Ben Soleimani brings together simplicity and sophistication, ensuring each creation seamlessly integrates into refined spaces.
