

BEN SOLEIMANI

HAND-SHEARED PERFORMANCE TEXTRA RUG - CONTEMPORARY

SKU:

Shown in Solid Sand

Oatmeal

PRODUCT DETAILS:

Sketched lines seem to rise and recede from this beautifully multi-textured rug, hand-woven by artisans with multiple weaving techniques. The Textra has a lustrous cast and soft, smooth feeling underfoot. High-performance fibers make it easy to clean and care for, allowing for uncommon versatility. The Ben Soleimani collection is inspired by natural variations within fibers, textures, and weaves. Every one of our handcrafted rugs is one-of-a-kind.

Rug swatches are available for a refundable deposit.

Due to the handwoven nature of our rugs, patterns and colors may differ according to size, and lengths and widths may differ from the exact dimensions on our product page. These variations are what make each one of our rugs unique, and are not defects from manufacturing. To confirm the color for your project, please order samples prior to purchase. Each screen depicts slight variations depending on your color calibration, which may alter the hue, because of this we can not assume responsibility for a purchase that has not been made prior to confirming color.
